Word Study Home Practice

We are adding word study to our home practice this week! This will need to be signed and returned next Friday, August 25th. Please read over the activities and complete them with your child. Your student will be responsible for learning five new words each week (you can find these on the front of the newsletter and inside the home practice packet.) This is the official home practice packet for the year. Thank you for all that you do at home!
